

Authorised Betting Operations Act 2000

Bookmakers and Bookmaker Agents

Guidelines for Applicants

Who needs to be licensed?

Bookmaker

A bookmaker is a person whose job is to take bets at race m (and other venues) in South Australia. They may engage a bookmaker's agent to work with them, or on behalf of them.

Bookmaker Agent

A bookmaker agent is a person who assists a licensed bookmaker in the business of taking bets where the bookmaker has a permit to conduct their business. If they are at all times working under the direction and supervision of the licensed bookmaker, they do not need be licensed.

If the bookmaker agent works on behalf of the licensed bookmaker, not under direction or supervision, they must be licensed.(eg, they attend a race meeting on behalf of a bookmaker, or are located in an area of the race course that differs from the licensed bookmaker).

A bookmaker, or licensed Agent, should be conversant with the Bookmakers Licensing Rules, which are available from the Independent Gambling Authority (www.iga.sa.gov.au).
