

Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995 - Section 18D(1)(b)

Details of condition of trade-in vehicle

Where a trade-in vehicle is to be traded by the purchaser in connection with the purchase of another vehicle which is subject to a cooling-off period, the purchaser retains possession of the trade-in vehicle during the cooling-off period. Legal title of the trade-in vehicle does not pass to the dealer until expiration of the cooling-off period.

Pursuant to section 18D(1)(b) of the Second-hand Vehicle Dealers Act 1995, the condition of any trade-in vehicle to be traded in connection with the purchase of another vehicle which is subject to a cooling-off period, must be recorded.

The details of the condition of the trade-in vehicle must be recorded in the form below and signed by the dealer and purchaser.

The dealer should keep the form and provide a copy of the form to the purchaser.

Details of dealer

Dealer's name:

Dealer's business address:

Dealer's licence number:

Dealer's contact phone number:

Details of purchaser

Purchaser's name:

Purchaser's address:

Purchaser's contact phone number:

Details of vehicle to be purchased

Make and model of vehicle: Vehicle Identification Number:

Registration number: Odometer reading:

Engine number: Year of manufacture:

Details of trade-in vehicle

Make and model of vehicle: Vehicle Identification Number:

Registration number: Odometer reading:

Engine number: Year of manufacture:

Condition of trade-in vehicle

Mechanical

Engine capacity:

Type and condition of engine:

Type and condition of battery:

Brake operation:

Type and condition of exhaust system:

Body

Body damage:

Paint work:

Rust:

Tyres - size and type:

Interior trim and upholstery:

Accessories

Vehicle audio:

Air conditioner operation:

List any special modifications or accessories:

Purchaser's declaration

I declare that the above details are an accurate record of the condition of the vehicle as at date: and time:

Signature: Date:

Dealer's declaration

I declare that the above details are an accurate record of the condition of the vehicle as at date: and time:

Signature: Date: