Reporting a dodgy seller who approached you uninvited

If a seller approached you at your home, in a shopping centre or in a car park and they were very pushy then we would like to hear about it.

If you agreed to buy from the seller and they did the wrong thing, we may be able to help you to fix the problem.

Name of the seller - the business or the company

| Details of the seller                      |       |                  |                  |  |  |  |

| Postcode                                   | State | Telephone number |                  |  |  |  |
| Where did the seller approach you?         |       |                  |                  |  |  |  |
| What were they selling?                    |       |                  |                  |  |  |  |
| When did they approach you (i.e. the date) |       |                  |                  |  |  |  |
| Did you buy something or sign a contract?  |       |                  |                  |  |  |  |
| If yes - what did you buy?                 |       |                  |                  |  |  |  |
|  |       |                  |                  |  |  |  |

How much did it cost?

Did the seller tell you about your right to cool off (cancel the contract) in 10 business days?

Is there anything else about the seller's behaviour you would like to report?
