

Identification seizure receipt

A prescribed person who seizes an ID must as soon as reasonably practicable issue this receipt to the person from whom the document was seized. The relevant licensee must give the confiscated ID and a copy of this receipt to a police officer within 7 days of the ID being seized by the prescribed person (except where the relevant prescribed person was a police officer or an inspector). Licensees are required to keep a copy of this receipt on the licensed premises for at least 1 year.

A prescribed person (other than a police officer or an inspector) who fails to comply with a requirement under section 115A is guilty of an offence. Max. penalty: $5 000. Expiation fee: $315.

Regulated premises on or at vicinity of which the document was seized

Premises name
Premises Address
Licence Number	5

ID details

Provide information about the document that has been seized (mobile phones and passports cannot be seized)
Name on the document
Address on the document
Date of birth on the document		Identification Number on the document
Type of ID	<input type="checkbox"/> Driver's licence	<input type="checkbox"/> Proof of age	<input type="checkbox"/> Other (specify)

Confiscation details

Provide information about the circumstances surrounding the confiscation of the document.
Name of the prescribed person that seized the document
Position	<input type="checkbox"/> Responsible person	<input type="checkbox"/> Licensee	<input type="checkbox"/> Security agent
ID Number
Reason for the confiscation	<input type="checkbox"/> The document has been forged or fraudulently altered <input type="checkbox"/> The document is being used in contravention of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997	<input type="checkbox"/> The person who produced the document is not the person identified in the document <input type="checkbox"/> The document contains false or misleading information about the name or age of the person who produced the document
Date the document was seized		Time the document was seized
Address of police station at which document will be produced

To be completed by Licensee

On _____ (Date)	the seized document and a copy of this receipt were produced to a police officer at _____ (Name of police station)
situated at _____ (Address of police station)
_____	_____
(Print name)
Signature _____	Date _____