Reasons for Decision

In reaching my determination, I have had regard to the objects of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997.

It is a requirement under section 97(1) of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 (the Act) that premises must be personally supervised by a responsible person at all times that they are open to the public, however under section 97(2) of the Act the Commissioner may exempt a licensee from this requirement and approve alternative arrangements for the supervision and management of the business. An exemption can only be granted if the licensing authority is satisfied that, in view of the limited scope of a business conducted under a licence, an exemption would not compromise the principle of responsible service of alcohol and consumption of liquor.

The licensee of the Sound Knowledge Pty Ltd has applied for an exemption from this requirement.

The applicant has submitted the following reasons why they should be granted an exemption:

Camp accommodation for Downer Australia workers. We are constantly servicing and maintaining the site 24/7, however, due to shift changes every 2-3 weeks, it is difficult to keep a Responsible Person at the camp at all times. Any employee who is serving liquor will hold an RSA certificate and is obligated to comply with strict policies and procedures at all times.

Having considered all of this, I am satisfied that, in view of the limited scope of the business conducted under the licence, an exemption from the responsible person requirements can be granted without compromising the principle of responsible service of alcohol and consumption of liquor.

I note that this exemption applies only to the requirement to have a responsible person present at all times, and that the licensee must still comply with the provisions of the General Code of Practice requiring all persons involved in the sale and supply of liquor to have completed approved responsible service of alcohol training.
