- Sale of liquor for consumption on the licensed premises authorised, but restricted to sampling only

Reasons for Decision

In reaching my determination, I have had regard to the objects of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997.

I note that the licensee has stated that they will not be open and trading to the public. They have also provided correspondence from their Council confirming that the premises is only authorised to be used for home activity under the relevant planning laws.

Having considered all of this, I am satisfied that, in view of the limited scope of the business conducted under the licence, an exemption from the responsible person requirements can be granted without compromising the principle of responsible service of alcohol and consumption of liquor.
