- Sale of liquor for consumption on the licensed premises authorised but, other than to residents, is restricted to sampling only

Reasons for Decision

In reaching my determination, I have had regard to the objects of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997.

It is a requirement under section 97(1) of the Liquor Licensing Act 1997 (the Act) that premises must be personally supervised by a responsible person at all times that they are open to the public, however under section 97(2) of the Act the Commissioner may exempt a licensee from this requirement and approve alternative arrangements for the supervision and management of the business. An exemption can only be granted if the licensing authority is satisfied that, in view of the limited scope of a business conducted under a licence, an exemption would not compromise the principle of responsible service of alcohol and consumption of liquor.

The applicant has applied for an exemption from this requirement and has submitted the following reasons why they should be granted an exemption:

Our licenced premise will not have the public visit. Wine will not be sold from the licenced premise - only the processing of online orders and wholesale orders will occur on the licenced premise.

Having considered all of this, I am satisfied that, in view of the limited scope of the business conducted under the licence, an exemption from the responsible person requirements can be granted without compromising the principle of responsible service of alcohol and consumption of liquor.

The exemption from the responsible person requirements is granted on the condition that a licensee must be contactable by phone at all times the premises is open for trade.
