Change of Directors
Notification to the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs

The definition of a director under the Occupational Licensing legislation is broader than that of the Corporations Law, as it includes ‘a person who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the business of the body corporate or who has the capacity to affect significantly the body corporate’s financial standing.’

For Security Agent or both Security & Investigation Agent only:

Each new director must complete a Personal Information Declaration (PID) and submit with this Change of Directors Form.

All new directors will also need to be fingerprinted by South Australia Police (fingerprinting arrangements will be made after lodgement of this notification).

If the new director has previously submitted a PID form to Consumer and Business Services in relation to an occupational licence, and that licence is still current, they do not need to provide a new form.

For all other licence holders:

For Security Agent or both Security & Investigation Agent only:

A National Police Certificate (NPC) is required for each new director except where one of the following applies:

- They are a director of a company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange
- The licence holder is a body established by statute (e.g. a council or Government authority)
- The director has lodged a NPC with Consumer & Business Services within the previous 12 months
- The director is an overseas resident who has never resided in Australia
- The director holds or is associated with another licence issued under the same Act for which a NPC or PID has already been supplied

The NPC must be no more than twelve months old at the time of lodging your notification. A NPC can be obtained through state and territory police departments and the Australian Federal Police. Alternatively, you can obtain National Criminal History/Record Checks from CV Check Pty Ltd (visit www.cvcheck.biz) or a Crimtrac Accredited Agency (visit www.crimtrac.gov.au for further information).

Important note: Checks that simply verify you are able to work with particular persons (e.g. children) without specifying your criminal history are not sufficient.
