

Facial Recognition Technology In Operation

Approved Facial Recognition Technology is being used in this gaming area to identify barred persons in accordance with the Gaming Machines Act 1992.

By entering you consent to your image being recorded by the approved facial recognition system in operation.

Government of South Australia

Attorney-General's Department